

The Grant Thornton Business School proudly brings you The Advanced Diploma in International Taxation

ADIT (the Advanced Diploma in International Taxation) is a robust foundation in international tax, awarded and administered by the Chartered Institute of Taxation in the UK. The ADIT syllabus represents authoritative technical knowledge designed by world-leading experts in the field. A total of three modules must be passed in order to achieve the qualification: the mandatory Module 1 – Principles of International Taxation exam, and any two of the available Modules. Alternatively, an extended essay may be submitted in place of one of the optional modules.

The Chartered Institute of Taxation awards and administers the ADIT exams; For a fee, the Grant Thornton Business School provides the necessary study manual and question bank, and provides access to the Tolley online Academy which allows students to post technical questions and download one practice exam and one pre-revision exam to be submitted for marking.

For further information about ADIT course fees and modalities, please contact us at gtbs@mu.gt.com or call us on 260 0170 – 260 0171.

Students must register online directly at www.adit.org.uk/studentregistration by 31 January 2019
